GENERAL PROVISION

GENERAL DIRECTIVES

1. All students are required to comply with the provisions of the Student Handbook. They should be familiar with its contents; ignorance of any provision in the Student Handbook does not excuse any student from being sanctioned for noncompliance.
2. The School recognizes the hazards of smoking to health and declares the School premises a non-smoking area.
3. Assessment for respective courses/track and strands are mandatory.
4. All students should respect Catholic and other religious practices and beliefs on campus such as praying before and after class. The Angelus, a Catholic devotion recited at 12 noon, and 6 p.m., should also be properly observed by Catholics and respected non-Catholics. Everyone should cause the performance of activities for some moment of silent reflection during the recitation of the Angelus.
5. Students should be courteous towards all persons within the school premises and at all times.
6. Upon enrollment, students will be issued an original identification (ID) card with a student number. Students are required to present their ID upon entry and visibly wear it while inside the campus or any of its premises at all times. The IDs are valid as long as the student is enrolled at the school and must present the same when asked by the school personnel and authorities.
7. Students are liable for false information on their ID, registration forms, and other school documents. Students who have transferred a residence or have changed their address should inform the Office of the Registrar through the staff at the Sue Desk. Any written communication sent to the last recorded address of students should be considered delivered even if returned.

8. Students are responsible for the submission and completion of required document form by the concerned officials. Noncompliance or non-submission of documents forms would constrain the offices to regulate the student's ID or place his/her clearance or enrolment status on hold.
9. The School regards its students as responsible individuals from the time they are admitted. Consequently, it is the responsibility of students to keep their parents or guardians informed or updated on their academic standing the status of their attendance, and the status of their disciplinary record, including the consequences of their failures, absences, and discipline infractions. Notices regarding these matters are sent by the school only by way of courtesy and do not relieve the students of their responsibility. Ignorance on the part of the parent or guardian of the academic standing or discipline record of the student may not be imputed to the School.
10. As a general rule, unless there is an announcement to the contrary, classes will proceed as scheduled.
11. Classes are automatically suspended, without the need for an announcement from the school, under the following conditions:
  - 11.1. All levels
    - 11.1.1. During regular holidays or when declared as a special non-working holiday by the Office of the President of the Philippines or, in the case of local holidays, by the local government of the Province/Municipality having political jurisdiction over the campus.

- 11.12 When specifically declared as "all levels and for private schools by national government agencies, such as the Office of the President or the National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (NDRRMC);
or
- 11.13 When specifically declared as "all levels" and for private schools by the local government for classes held in campuses covered by its jurisdiction;
or
- 11.1.4. When Typhoon Signal No. 2 or above is raised.
- 11.1.5. When announced by the Department of Health or Inter-Agency Task Force for the Management of Emerging Infectious Diseases for Alert Level Status.

12. The President or Principal decides on the suspension of classes under the following conditions:

- 12.1. In cases when the decision on the suspension of classes, for whatever reason, is left by the government to the discretion of the school.
- 12.2. In all other cases when the school, on its own, intends to suspend classes.

13. In cases when an announcement of the suspension of classes by the government is made when classes for the day have already begun, the President or Principal shall, only for purposes of standardizing the cut-off time for the suspension of classes, determine the time of the suspension

14. When left to the School, the decision to suspend classes takes into account my such as the safety of all students, the academic calendar, government regulations on contact hours, and many others. The School shall exert all efforts to decide on the suspension of classes at the earliest practicable time

15. The decision of the President or Principal will be communicated to the respective coordinators for dissemination. The official announcement of the suspension of classes will be made through the following Official facebook (<http://www.facebook.com/trentinfofist>)

16. The TIFTCI is officially open from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 pm only. Only those with permits will be allowed to enter earlier than and stay beyond these hours.
17. All official business with any office of the school, or with any administrative personnel should be transacted in writing following the standard letter format. The student should provide two (2) copies: one copy for the office concerned and the other one noted by the recipient for the student as a receiving copy. Oral arrangements or agreements should be supported afterward by a written document.
18. All members of the School community are expected to observe the values of politeness, etiquette, and courtesy in dealing with the other members and guests, in the school times. They are expected to show respect to persons with exceptionalities and for differences in religion, race, sexual orientation and gender identity, and political. Upon admission to the School, a student is regarded as a mature individual with the rights and responsibilities of a citizen to foster an environment that is conducive to academic, social, and moral development. All of these contribute to the goal of achieving a good education and upholding values for the common good within and outside the School.
19. The students are required to wear their respective uniforms all the time. When there is a time that the School doesn't require the student to wear the school uniform. They are encouraged to use attire that would consider the educational character of the school and the sensibility of other members of the academic community. Dressing appropriately virtue that the School would like to cultivate among students; thus, the School reserves the right to call the attention of students.
20. Students should follow the standard classroom policies and procedures.

- 20.1. Appropriate and proper use of electronic devices as defined by faculty support instruction (e.g., cellular phones and other communication devices, laptops, etc.) should be observed to promote a classroom environment that is conducive to learning.

20.2. Use of instructional equipment and materials in classrooms for academic and related purposes, following the guidelines on venue and equipment reservation.

20.3. Proper care and responsible use of all classroom equipment, furniture, and other gadgets of the School.

21. Faculty members are also allowed to set additional policies and procedures provided that these are reasonable and mutually agreed upon by the faculty and students. Any student who violates these policies and procedures may be asked to report to the Administrator's Office (AO) for investigation. The student must proceed immediately to the AO to obtain a Re-admission Slip, without which the respondent may neither be readmitted to class, allowed to take his/her examination, nor enroll. The student shall be marked "absent" for every session missed from the date he or she is sent out up to the time of re-admission. The AO shall inform the student of whatever actions it may have taken on the case.

21.1. Students should observe proper decorum and attire during academic and non-academic events held in auditoriums and theaters on and off campus.

21.2. Noisy and disruptive behaviors, which distract ongoing classes and activities like the Angelus, are not tolerated. In addition, everyone is expected to remain where they are during the recitation of the Angelus, regardless of his/her religious affiliation.

21.3. Posted directions should be carefully observed in classrooms, on the School bulletin board, in the canteens, in restrooms, and in other buildings or places within the School's jurisdiction. Areas exclusive for men or women (eg, ladies and men's rooms), which are marked accordingly, are off-limits to the opposite sex.

22. The School encourages healthy interaction among students. However, acts or gestures that tend to offend the sensibilities of other members of the community, including public displays of physical intimacy, are not tolerated. In line with this, they should comply with the implementing guidelines set by the School.

23. Activities that inflict physical, or psychological harm or demean the dignity of an individual (e.g, hazing, initiation, etc.) are not allowed.
